

EXTRACTS FROM THE DORKING ADVERTISER OF 31 AUGUST 1907

WESTCOTT

Choir Outing -- On Tuesday the boys of the Parish Church choir, with a few friends, had a most enjoyable outing to the Crystal Palace. The weather being beautifully fine, a very pleasant time was spent.

Great Annual Sale at Cheesman and Bromley's, 4 and 103 Hight Street Dorking, commencing Thursday, September 12th. Last day of Sale, September 28th. Everything will be sold at reduced prices. Bargains in all departments. Don't forget the date – September 12th.

Dahlia Show – The 7th annual show will be held in the Brooklands Meadow (by kind permission of C Sanger Esq. and Messrs Balchin and Sons) on Wednesday next, September 4th. Open at 2pm,; admission 6d, and after 5pm, 3d. The prizes will be distributed by Mrs C Carey-Druce. The Dorking String Band has been engaged. Dancing at 7pm.

WEDDING -- On Monday morning at Holy Trinity Church, a very pretty wedding was solemnized. The contracting parties being Miss Amy Rhoades, second daughter of Mr & Mrs F Rhoades of Westcott, and Mr Tom Coot, only son of the late Mr T Coot of Lincolnshire. The officiating clergyman was the Vicar, the Rev. A D Wooley, and the "Wedding March" was rendered by the organist, Miss Bostock. The bride's dress was of white silk with white hat and ostrich feathers, and she carried a splendid shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and wore a gold pendant and chain, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were the Misses Jessie, Eva and Elsie Rhoades, sisters of the bride and Miss Edith Garfit, half-sister of the bridegroom. Two were in pale green, and two in pale blue striped voile, and they wore white hats. Their bouquets were of pink carnations and they wore gold brooches, the gift of the bridegroom. The best man was Mr W R Mountain, of Alford, Lincolnshire. After the reception, the happy couple left by the 1.30 train, en route for Marseilles and Paris. They will subsequently join the RMS Oratavia for their home in New Zealand. The bride's travelling dress was a light costume, trimmed with light green velvet. The presents were numerous and useful including two handsome bride cakes, one of which has been forwarded to their home in New Zealand.

