

Article 5 - Microsoft Internet Explorer provided by Virgin.net

File Edit View Favorites Tools Help

Address http://infotrac.galegroup.com/tw/infomark/121/990/81076754w1/pul-rc1_TTDA_0_CS320285930&dyn=4lxm_5_0_CS320285930tst_1?sw_aep=nlw2006 Go Links »

Google Search 413 blocked Check AutoLink AutoFill Options

Search Highlight Save to My Web Y! Mail Personals Y! Mobile Sign in

The funeral of Sir George Touche took place yesterday at Holy Trinity Church, Westcott. The Rev. F. H. Salzmänn officiated, and the principal mourners included:—

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Touche, Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Touche, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Touche, and Mr. and Mrs. George Touche (sons and daughters-in-law); Mr. and Mrs. Edward Touche (brother and sister-in-law), Mrs. William Touche (sister-in-law), Lord Wargrave, Mr. W. Sandford Poole, Lord Remnant, Lord and Lady Farrer, Mr. Lionel A. Stride, Mr. W. F. G. Turvill (Westminster Bank), Mr. and Mrs. Alan Baker.

Major-General Sir Frederick and Lady Sykes, Mrs. Parton, Major and Mrs. Childers-Carter, Mr. J. W. Brooks, Mr. C. Carey Druce, Mrs. Salzmänn, Mr. W. H. Monk, Miss Hogbin, Mrs. Cory Wright, Mr. Stanley Miller (Chief Conservative Agent, Reigate Division), Mr. A. McL. Niven, Dr. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. G. Tunnell, Major-General S. S. Long, Major S. H. Long, Mr. Leroy Lewis, Mrs. Leonard Sale, Mr. John Tait, and Mrs. Andrew Wilson Tait.

Start Sent Items - Outlook Expre... Gale National Library We... Article 5 - Microsoft I... Internet 07:55

The Times 10 July 1935